

Terms of Business

These Terms of Business explain how Harratts Legal Services Ltd provides its services and the basis on which we act. Please read these terms of business carefully and keep a copy for your records.

Status of Harratts Legal Services

Harratts Legal Services Ltd is not a firm of solicitors and is not regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority (SRA). We provide unregulated legal support services and operate in accordance with UK consumer protection law.

Scope of our services

We prepare legal documents and provide guidance strictly in accordance with the instructions you give us. Responsibility for decisions made remains yours. We do not carry out reserved legal activities.

Fees and pricing

All fees are explained before you proceed. VAT applies where relevant. Certain statutory or third-party costs may apply and will be explained.

We are transparent on fees. As explained during your appointment, full pricing details are set out in the brochure provided to you today. You can also refer to our website for clear and transparent pricing.

Where you choose to appoint a professional trustee or any other professional services through Countrywide Tax & Trust Corporation Ltd, additional fees may apply. This can include charges for trustee meetings and for any work required at the relevant time. Details of these charges are set by Countrywide Tax & Trust Corporation Ltd and can be found on their website.

Right to cancel

You have a statutory 14-day right to cancel where applicable. If you request work to start within this period, you may be required to pay only for the work already carried out up to the date of cancellation.

Professional indemnity insurance

We hold professional indemnity insurance of up to £2 million for valid claims arising from our work.

Limitation of liability

Nothing in these Terms limits or excludes liability where this is not permitted by law. Subject to this, and where lawful, our total liability shall not exceed £2 million.
